ORDER

As per order read 1st above, Government ordered that the broken spells of provisional service/leave vacancy service rendered by regular aided college staff or regular aided school staff/Government employees, prior to their entry in regular service shall not be reckoned as qualifying service w.e.f. 01.06.2016.

As per order read 2nd above amendment has been made in rule 14E of Part III KSR to the effect that only regular full time aided school service rendered after the introduction of Direct Payment System in aided school shall be reckoned for pension. The writ appeal filed by Government restricting the above provision up to 01.06.2016 was dismissed by Hon'ble High Court in a common judgement dated 04/07/2019 in WA 1235 of 2018 and 20 connected cases read above. The AG(A&E) has informed that CC(C)of 2018 in WP(C)30167/2016 has been filed in the High Court by Sri. Sabu Mathew & another alleging non compliance of the judgement dated 14/08/2017. Direction was issued to the Head of Departments concerned that those who retire prior to the issuance of the aforesaid amendment (ie: retired before 01.08.2018) are eligible to reckon the broken/leave vacancy period for pensionary benefits. But certain doubts has been raised regarding reckoning of broken spells of aided school service.

Government after examining the matter are pleased to clarify that "the broken spells of provisional service/leave vacancy service rendered by regular aided school staff/Government employees, in aided schools prior to their entry in regular service shall not be reckoned as qualifying service w.e.f 10.08.2018."

The judgement of the Hon'ble High Court thus stands complied with.
